GROVER'S THEATER.-This is the last night but one of Mr. Glenn and his company at Grovers, and to-night La Belle Emile takes a benefit, and Irish, Yankee and Dutch charac. ters will be protrayed in amusing style. Glenn himself will appear as "Rip Van Winkle." To-morrow night "Jack Sheppard" and other plays.

COLLISION BETWEEN SOLDIERS AND NE-GROES-One Soldier Killed, one Supposed to be Mortally Wounded; Another slightly.-Yesterday, about 6 o'clock p. m., two shantles occupied by negroes, located on 8th street east, beyond Baker's cavalry quarters, was set on fire and burned to the ground. A small shanty occupied by lewd women, favorites of soldiers quartered near, was saved by the soldiers, who lifted it and carried it beyond danger.

It was difficult to a rtain the precise facts last night, but from the most reliable sources we learned that a fight had previously occurred between some soldiers and negroes originating about whiskey. Some contrabands had been employed in coofing a house near the spot, and they were in the habit of carrying whisky with them, and soldiers were in the habit of getting some from them. Yesterday, when the soldiers applied for liquor, the negroes were not inclined to give it, and this aroused the anger of the soldiers, who kicked up a fight with them. In the fight, one of the soldiers was struck on the back of the head with a hoe, which caused his death in a few minutes. Another was cut in the neck near the jugular vein; another, named Jas. W. Carter, who was arrested, was cut in the head slightly. A negro, Wm. Getts, sr., was severely cut on the back of his head, but not dargerously.

Sergeant Clark, with five patrolemen of the Sixth Ward and two from the Fifth, were speedily on the spot, and arrested one white soldier, J. W. Carter; five colored men, one boy, and three women, all engaged in the riot. and conveyed them to the Fifth Ward Stationhouse, followed by an immense crowd of persons of all colors, soldiers and civilians, who were very much excited, and appeared to be anxious to take the prisoners into their own hands and inflict the penalty of lynch law. The negro who killed the soldier is believed to be a man named Nathaniel Williams, a man about sixty years of age. One of the women arrested, and a soldier, identify him as the man who inflicted the death wound with the hoe. He is among those arrested.

The police and citizens complain that the conduct of the soldiers and those who furnish them with whisky privately is such as to demand the very strictest enforcement of the military orders, and the constant presence of a strong guard of troops to protect the residents of the eastern part of the city from insult and abuse, and to prevent the occurrence of scenes like that described beretofore.

The prisoners are held for a hearing before Justice Call. ANOTHER ACCOUNT. On the Square, bounded by 8th and 9th streets east and B and C north, there are a number of shanties, occupied by contrabands, and one occupied by a number of white prostitutes. For some time past there has been an animosity existing between the whites and their black neighbors, and yesterday afternoon about 6 o'clock the animosity culminated in a serious collision between the soldier visitors and the blacks, which resulted in one soldier being killed outright, another one mortally wounded, and one of the colored men being badiy cut about the head. The soldiers afterwards fired the buildings and three of them were burned. The fire companies were prompt y on the ground, but there was no water to be had. Neverthless, some of them worked man. fully, despite the resistance of the soldiers, and prominently among these was Mr. T. H. Robinson), and prevented the flames from spreading to the other shanties.

Serg't Clark, officers Harrison, Grant, Harbin and Shelton, of the 9th precinct, Sprague, Roby and Nicholson, of the 8th precinct, and a equad of soldiers under Surgeons McKee and Payne, were promptly on the ground, and after considerable difficulty put down the riot. The following were arrested:-Nat Williams, Molton Smith, John Lucket, Spencer Curver, Henry Getts, jr., Henry Getts, sr., all colored, and James Carter, a white soldier. They were all taken to the Fifth Ward station, where they were locked up, and this morning they were brought out before Justice In consequence of the apprehension of another outbreak, a guard was placed around the square last night. The name of the soldier killed was Robert Stroupe of the 6th Pennsylvania cavalry.

DEMONSTRATION BY THE COLORES PEOPLE YESTERDAY .- On the 21st of July Mr. J. R. Pierre, superintendent of the 3d colored Baptist Sabbath school, addressed a letter to President Lincoln, requesting the use of the grounds between the Executive Mansion and the War Department for a demonstration of the Sabbath schools, on August 4th-the day appointed for national humiliation and prayer. The object, as stated, was that the colored people might show their appreciation of the benefits they have received by reason of the promulgation of the emancipation proclamation, and the freeing of the slaves in the district. Mr. Pierre, in his communication, farther stated that the object was to purchase for the school a banner, to be called "The Banner of Freedom," and which was to contain a lifesize picture of President Lincoln, together with a design representing the fleeing of slaves from bondage to freedom.

This communication was referred to Hon. B. B. French, Commissioner of Public Buildings, who replied on the 23d ult., and granted permission provided the President approved it. The approval was given and consequently the celebration was held yesterday. It was intended to have the Sunday School Union (colored) fully present by schools, but by some misunderstanding this was not the case. All of the schools were however, represented to a greater or less extent. The Third Baptist (colored) school assembled in a body at 10 o'clock, and at 12 the exercises of the day commenced with religious exercises, Rev. Albert Bouldin. colored, preaching a very good sermon from the 11th verse of the 2d chapter of Habakkuk. After these exercises were concluded the assembly gave themselves up to social enjoyment. Watermelons, canteleups, smaller fruits, cakes, lemonades and other refreshments were spread jut in abundance. Swings were suspended from the branches of the trees, and promena. ding parties continually moved about. All seemed to enjoy themselves hugely. Outside the grounds the scene was equally animated. Numerous tables, for the sale of refreshments occupied every available space and trade was brisk. A large number of colored people remained outside of the enclosure, some not feeling able, and others not willing to pay the price of admission. At three o'clock, when the exercises again commenced, there were between 400 and 500 people on the grounds, and the speaking com. menced. The platform was erected about midway the grounds, but near to the President's garden, and over it was hung a large and beautiful American flag. Religious services were conducted by Revs. Bouldin and Hammond, and after that Edward T. Thurican, (colored,) of Philadelphia, was introduced, and delivered a lengthy address, wherein he expressed much thankfulness to President Lincoln and his administration for all that had been done for the colored race. He also urged those present to enlist and aid by all their power in crushing the rebellion, now that the colored people had been allowed to exercise arms. The speaker had formerly been a slave, and gave some interesting descriptions of the horrors of slavery-scenes which had passed under his own observation.

Dr. Thomas Brown. (colored) of Philadelphia, and others also delivered addresses. Mr. dence of the affair, also made a few remarks, herein he thanked the President for granting the use of the grounds and doing so much for the colored people. He said he knew there were many among those who have robbed God as well as men and women, and were now trying to break up this Government, who thought the bodies of the colored people ought now to be on a traitor's plantation. To-day they were permitted to assemble here, but yet many held they should yet be slaves to those who were helping Jeff Davis and his copperhead crew.

The celebration broke up about dark, and the participants, in a quiet and orderly man-ner, retired to their homes. A handsome sum was realized for the banner.

SALES OF REAL ESTATE .- Messrs. McGuire & Co. have made the following sales of real estate:—Lot on H street north, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets west, to John Joseph Mountency, at $1.50 per square foot. Brick house and lot adjoining to W. H. Clampett, for $5,050. CONSUL TO SHEFFIELD, ENGLAND .- George Abbott, Esq., a gentleman of fine acquire-ment, and long connected with the Consular Bureau of the State Department, has been ap-pointed Consul to Sheffield, England, and will hortly leave for Europe. FOUND DROWNED .- Yesterday the body of a colored man was found in the mouth of the apparently in the water for some days.

CORNER STONE OF THE AFRICAN M. E. CHURCH (ISLAND) LAID .- The corner-stone of a new African M. E. Church was laid yesterday on Eighth street, Island, just south of Grace Church, in the presence of a large concourse of colored people, and with Masonic ceremonies by the colored lodges. Religious services were conducted by Revs. I. J. Herbert and M. F. Steeley, colored, and an address was delivered by Rev. Bishop Wayman. The building will be 45 by 50 feet. In the corner-stone was placed a record of the officers of the church, the trustees, building committee, and Rev. Jacob Nichelson, pastor in charge. Also, that the stone was laid in the year of our Lord 1-61, under the Administra-

DEAD .- S. S. Williams, Esq., a well known lawyer of this city, died yesterday of Typhoid fever. His death was unexpected although he has been very ill for some days. Attending Mr. Williams death is a circumstance which well illustrates the really beneficial effect of Life Insurance Companies. A few months ago Mr. W. was applied to by an agent of a Life Insurance Company to have his life insured. He scouled the idea and claimed that his chances for a long life were as good as those of any other of his acquaintances. He was eventually persuaded and had his life insured for $5,000, premium of $33 per quarter, to be paid quarterly. He has paid for but two quarters, (all that was due,) and now at his death his family receives the handsome sum of CHRISTY'S MINSTRELS will open at Ford's on Monday for a short season. This troupe, which is under control of Mr. J. W. Rainey, is the only one entitled to be designated as the original Christy Minstrels. George Christy, a veteran in the service, is still with them, and the company is composed of the best material throughout. Their entertainments will no doubt prove immensely attractive.
